LAUREL MARRED BY UPSET

STAKE FEATURE OF LATONIA PROGRAM GOES TO EXTREME OUTSIDER.

Cincinnati, O., November 3.—Cool and cheerless weather confronted race-goers at Latonia this afterboon, but the attendance was better than expected and the volume of speculation surprisingly large, the latter item exceeding that of any former day this week. The Laurel Stakes, at three-quarters, and a handicap at one mile, for two-year-olds, were the chief offerings and probably were the magnets that attracted unexpectedly generous attendance. The stake race resulted disappointingly. Prince Gal. considered as a likely contender before the race, was the direct cause. Though only four started in the race, he was virtually left at the post, and then electrified the onlookers by making a sensational bid for the purse. The winner turned up in All Red, the extreme outsider, which beat Melisande a neck. Tom Hayward, under a hard ride, outstayed Prince Gal for third place. The latter was much the best, and with an equal sendoff would have won. John W. Schorr took down his almost daily purse when Star Charter landed the handicap over Sidney R. Incidentally the colt impressed the crowd by the manner in which he shouldered his 118 pounds. The closing race was run in semi-darkness, smoke from switch engines in the rear of the track and a gray mist precluding accuracy of vision. Henry Hutchison led Imprudent, the favorite, all the way and won by a comfortable margin.

The limit number of starters went to the post in the first two dashes, conditioned for maiden two-year-olds. Both resulted in upsets, the purses being taken by horses grouped with the field. Earney Schreiber's Du Bois accounted for the first and Henderson & Hogan's V. Powers took the second. Both showed distinct haprovement in form over previous starts. Third Rail, winner of the third race, was another to develop good speed during the afternoon. He led his company all the way.

Today's arrivals included Barney Schreiber's and James L. Holland, president of the Los Angeles Racing Association. Mrs. Holland accompanied Mr. Holland. They will remain here several da

GOSSIP FROM PACIFIC COAST.

San Francisco, Cal., November 3.—With the opening of the racing season only little more than a week away, horses are speeding along at Oakiand track in the morning as a part of their preparation. Superintendent James J. Grant has the track in fine condition and some good noves have been noted by condition and some good noves have been noted by the clockers on hand during the early morning hours. Many strings that were resting during the summer months have been in training for a month or so and good racers like Bubbling Water and Cloudlight will be ready to face the barrier early in the meeting.

The horses that raced on the tracks of the intermountain circuit will be ready to start at the outset of the meeting. Some of the owners like A. B. Spreckels and Charles W. Clark have the beneat of private tracks at their farms and their older horses are also in good shape to compete for the early purses.

horses are also in Society purses.

J. M. Crane is preparing his horses for early racing. He has John H. Sheehan looking like a two-year-old, and all the racers in his stable have been going well. Helen Carroll, a filly which he purchased from A. G. Blakeley, has filled out and looks to be at least a hundred pounds heavier than she was last winter. Kirschbaum will do the Crane station. Atkin.

BOOSTING FOR SUCCESS AT JAMESTOWN

People of Norfolk Displaying Lively Concern for Permanency of the Sport.

Norfelk, Va., November 3.—Mud runners had an iming at the Jamestown track this afternoon. The going was heavy close to the inner rail, but in fairly good condition on the outside. The racing conditions were such as to make the sport inviting only to the hardened regulars. The weather was raw and cold and dark, heavy clouds hung over the course all afternoon. Considering these disagreeable features, the attendance was excellent and it certainly looks as if meetings here can be made to pay. The Norfolk people are taking kindly to the sport and everyone is boosting. There was nothing attractive about the eard offered this afternoon, ordinary horses being named to go in all of the rases. A majority of the finishes found the winners first home by long margins and their victories were evidently anticipated in most cases, as strong and unnatural support developed. Despite the fact that the six favorites were beaten, it is doubtful if the layers found the balance on the afternoon's business on the right side of the ledger. In the steeplechase the winner, Essex II., was backed from 8 to 1 to 3 to 1. The horse won in a canter by five lengths. Expansionist, the favorite, was a distant trailer until the race was practically over. The showing of this horse was a keen disappointment to form players, who will eagerly watch his future races. The first and sixth races were the only two in which the winners were forced to stand a drive.

Dress Parade II. came back after his victory of yesterday, and, after making all of his own pace, lasted to beat Laughing Eyes a neck. In the closing race Gay Deceiver, favored by good racing luck, beat Captain Swanson a scant length. The latter was sharply cut off on the turn out of the back-stretch or the result might have been different.

Several ruliugs were announced by the judges this afternoon, one of which brought indefinite suspension to jockey Leibert for his handling of Royal Onyx yesterday. Leibert declared that he would never run a good race unless he was stimulated. Jockey McCabe w

Lexington, Ky., November 3.—The sixteen-year-cid bay mare Lenota, dam of Freekman and Judge Walton, by Longfellow—Videt, by Virgil, owned by James C. Rogers, fell over a cliff at Iroquois Farm today and broke her neck. She was in foal to Stalwart. George C. Bennett's yearling bay filly by Sempro-nius, out of the grand race mare, Dishabille, was turned over to Henry McDaniel today and he will train and race her for her owner. The filly was foaled at Idle Hour Farm and was broken there by Cliff Hammon.

MEDIANT ENTERS THE STUD.

Norfolk, Va., November 3.—Herman B. Duryea, who is here for awhile before proceeding to his estate in Tennessee for the winter, reports that his stable in France consists of fourteen coming two-year-olds, most of them American-bred sons and daughters of Adam, Broomstick and Irish Lad, These youngsters are established at his private training place in Normandy, where they have a track sevencighths of a mile around over which to gallop.

There are several captivating lookers in this bunch, but how fast they can run or what they will do next year their owner has no idea because they have not been thoroughly tried.

Mediant, the daughter of Meddler and Ballantrae, with which Mr. Duryea won the Great Eastern Handicap of 1908 at Sheepshead Bay and the Stewards' Cup at Goodwood, is out of training. Mediant was mated with Zinfandel in England last spring. She will drop her foal at the Duryea place in France next spring, and it will be eligible to run in all French races.

Irish Lad is at Mr. Duryea's French establishment with some fifteen splendidly-bred American mares, several of which bore the Duryea is putting the produce of these mares in the great English classics.

Mr. Duryea is hoping that Mediant's Zinfandel foal may be a colt. If he is he will be named for the Epsom Derby. Mediant has a warm place in the affections of the Duryeas, and they are anxious to have her do well at the stud. She best a good lot when she won the Great Eastern of 1908, and she beat the shiftiest sprinters in England when she won the Stewards' Cup of 1909.

Dreamer and Belfast, which represent the extent of Mr. Duryea's racing string in this country, will winter with trainer J. Simon Healy's string at Capit. E. B. Cassatt's Chesterbook Farm in Pennsylvania, Captain Cassatt, by the way, will next year race the biggest string he ever campaigned and Healy will handle his horses.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

W. W., Toronto, Ont., The wager on Descomnets

G. W. E., Indianapolis, Ind. $12.96 in all, including the money bet.
C. H., Louisville, Ky. The bet was run for by Danger Mark and lost.

Joseph H. C., Kansas City, Mo. The bet lost on Amalif. Had he run second it would have won.

H. J., Buffalo, N. Y. It was C. De Witt's Heath-rbloom that ran in race 92630, not E. B. Cassatt's Michael M., Chicago. There was no separate place and show betting. Had there been it would have been quoted.

E. T. C., Kansas City, Mo. (1) It does not. The horse bet on must win or run to the place for which it is backed. (2) Cannot pass opinions on the merits of "systems," none being of more than occasional temporary value.

G. A. K., Cincinnati, O. Cannot say, it not being clear what the qualification in regard to Relluf meant. If the bets were paid for when made there was enough coming to make the bet on Relluf. If they were credit bets there was not.

Richard S., Chicago. (1) New Orleans papers publish entries but not charts. (2) A full explanation with examples will be contained in the American Racing Manual of 1911, which will be published early in January. (3) The terms mean two or more horses bunched and sold as one horse under the term "field."
